November 2010

Postgrad Solutions is delighted to announce that it won the September Ri Fiver competition for clever design and marketing initiatives. Ri-5 is an education and graduate recruitment news site, and every month it invites clever design and marketing initiatives to be sent in, from which they select a winner via their prestigious judging panel. We sent in our infographic on Ingenious ways to fund your masters degree, and were the winners for September!! As we told you in our September newsletter, this infographic was a great success for Postgrad Solutions, generating 8,700 visitors to this page on Postgrad.com alone, 8,300 of whom were brand new visitors to our site!

'It got our juices flowing because it felt fresh, bold and new. A brave and inspiring attempt to engage its audience.'

We have now been invited to their award ceremony in London on 31st January 2011 where we will be up against the other winners from throughout the year - watch this space!

We announce our 10 postgraduate bursary winners for 2010, and commit to 10 new bursaries in 2011

Ten postgraduate students have been awarded a £500 bursary each from Postgrad Solutions to help them with their studies. There were 423 applicants from all over the world, and the ten lucky students have now been chosen.

The winners are from countries ranging from Peru to Pakistan, and the USA to Zimbabwe, and there are even a couple from the UK! They have now started their courses at institutions throughout the UK, including the University of Nottingham, University of Dundee, University of Derby, University of Leeds, Bournemouth University, Nottingham Trent University, City University London, and ESCP Europe, which has campuses London, Paris, Berlin, Madrid and Turin.

Chinazo Unachukwu from Nigeria is doing a PhD in Electronic & Electrical Engineering at the University of Leeds. She says of winning the Postgrad Solutions bursary, 'I can't express my gratitude enough, I really want to say a big thank you to everyone at Postgrad Solutions for making me part of this experience.
